Sir,

I have the honor to forward for information a copy of Docket No.2338/378 dated 20th May 1903, from the District Magistrate, Shimoga, and to request that you will be so good as to obtain sanction of Government for a temporary Toty on Rs.7/- per mensem to do sweeping and scavengering in the new District Lock-up at Shimoga, whenever Parians and other low caste men or recommittal and habitual offenders among convicts, who are to do the scavengering work without prejudice to their caste, are not available.

The pay of the Toty thus employed temporarily may be met from the contingencies of the said Lock-up.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Inspector General of Prisons

in Mysore.
